RAO Newsletter #2012-8 - April 17, 2012

RAO will no longer maintain retiree's email addresses

Some months ago the RAO got involved in what is referred to as a comprehensive digital communication management system designed specifically for the public sector, it is a web based solution that monitors the Department of Military affairs website for content updates and automatically generates email or wireless alerts when changes are detected on designated web pages. Email messages are sent to subscribers notifying them that a new RAO Newsletter has been published on our website.

The long and short of it is that once you subscribe to this system, your email address will be secure and kept private - we do not share your email address with anyone. You will never be asked to enter your name, address, phone, etc.

The purpose of this Newsletter is to advise you that as of today the RAO will no longer ask you to provide your email address and will be deleting those that we currently have on file.

Now, if you haven't already subscribed to the information available, we suggest that you go to our website at <http://dma.wi.gov/retirees> , and on the right hand side of the web page you'll find "Subscribe to receive Retiree News & Information", just below that you'll see "How to Subscribe". There are a number of other items that you may wish to subscribe to, review them, and make your choices.
